BC|MQI
BC Medical Quality Initiative

AppCentral End User Technical Requirements

AppCentral allows practitioners to submit their appointment and reappointment applications via the Internet. Below are the devices, recommended browsers and operating systems required to use AppCentral.

Computers & Laptops
Devices that may be used to access and use AppCentral include: • Personal or work computer or laptop • Macs The following devices are not recommended to access and use AppCentral: • iPhones • iPads • Androids
Web Browser Compatibility
Web browsers recommended to access and use AppCentral include: • Internet Explorer 9.0 (or later) • Firefox 1.5 (or later) • Google Chrome If you are using a Mac, the following Web browser is recommended: • Safari Windows XP is not recommended. If you need to use Windows XP, the following Web browsers are recommended • Google Chrome • Firefox 1.5 (or later) Note: • JavaScript and Cookie capabilities must be enabled in the selected Web browser. • Windows XP and older versions of Internet Explorer 9.0 may be used. However, users may experience issues due to limited functionality and Windows XP is no longer supported by Microsoft.
Adobe Acrobat Reader (Document Viewer)
The recommended document viewer is: • Adobe Acrobat Viewer 6.0 (or later)
Printer and Scanners
You will require a printer and scanner to complete your online application.
Who to Contact for Support?
For help with AppCentral, contact your local medical affairs office. See listings at: bcmqi.ca/contact-us/